

Complaints Policy

This policy provides information about our internal dispute resolution (IDR) process. Our IDR service is provided to you free of charge.

ALL ABOUT YOU FINANCE ABN 37 320 831 773 Australian Credit Licence 385512 believes that it is essential for us to have the ability, authority and proper training to hear and respond appropriately to any complaints or disputes raised by our customers.

We are a member of the Mortgage & Finance Association of Australia (MFAA), and as such we are also subject to the requirement to have in place an IDR process.

How you may lodge a complaint

You can lodge complaints by contacting our General Manager Jared Nathan our Complaints Officer, by:

- Phoning (08) 9381 8311;
- Emailing jared@allaboutyoufinance.com.au;
- writing to P.O. Box 1233 West Leederville WA 6901.

You may also lodge a complaint by speaking to any representative of our business who will refer you to the General Manager.

You should explain the details of your complaint as clearly as you can. You may do this verbally or in writing.

In order to assist complainants who might need additional assistance to lodge a complaint, we:

- offer multiple methods for lodging complaints, including phone, email, letter, social media, in person, or online;
- do not require complaints to be in writing;
- allow representatives to lodge complaints on behalf of complainants, including financial counsellors, legal representatives, family members and friends.

Dealing with complaints

Our process for dealing with complaints is as follows:

1. Acknowledgement: We will acknowledge receipt of your complaint promptly – that is, within one business day of receiving it, or as soon as practicable.
2. Assessment and investigation: We will review your complaint carefully and promptly, taking such steps and reviewing such documents as reasonably necessary.
3. IDR response: We will provide an 'IDR response', which is a written communication that sets out the final outcome of your complaint through our IDR process and your right to take your complaint to AFCA if you are not satisfied with the IDR response. If we reject or partially reject your complaint, we will clearly set out the reasons for our decision.

Response timeframes

Generally, we will provide an IDR response to you no later than 30 calendar days after receiving the complaint.

However, for some specific types of credit-related complaints, the following response timeframes apply.

- Credit-related complaints involving default notices: No later than 21 calendar days after receiving the complaint;
- Credit-related complaints involving hardship notices or requests to postpone enforcement proceedings: No later than 21 calendar days after receiving the complaint. Exceptions apply if we do not have sufficient information to make a decision, or if we reach an agreement with you.

We do not need to provide an IDR response to you if we close your complaint by the end of the fifth business day after receipt because we have:

- (a) resolved the complaint to your satisfaction; or
- (b) given you an explanation and/or apology we can take no further action to reasonably address your complaint.

However, we must provide a written IDR response for complaints closed by the end of the fifth business day after receipt if:

- (a) the complainant requests a written response; or
- (b) the complaint is about hardship.

Our external dispute resolution scheme – AFCA

If we do not reach agreement on your complaint, you may refer your complaint to the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA). You can contact the AFCA scheme:

- by phone on 1800 931 678;
- by email at info@afca.org.au; or
- in writing to GPO Box 3, Melbourne VIC 3001.

The AFCA scheme is a free service established to provide you with an independent mechanism to resolve specific complaints. Please make sure that you are quoting the correct Australian Credit License for your complaint. We are able to provide this for you prior to you contacting AFCA.
